Adrian Appiolaza

Chloé

(2002-2006)

Adrian Appiolaza was a key designer at Chloé (2002-2006), working under Phoebe Philo to shape the brand's modern romantic aesthetic. He contributed to fluid silhouettes, soft tailoring, and the boho-chic movement of the mid-2000s. His work aligned with Chloé's Paddington Bag era, defining effortless Parisian style through delicate ruffles, muted pastels, and relaxed layering.
